ORDER

Michele Malverty, individually and as successor-in-interest for James C. Rennick, Sr., moves for an order authorizing the production of documents concerning a third party, James L. Palmer, Sr., from Experian Information Solutions, Inc.¹ (Doc. 57). The court previously allowed this production from Equifax Information Services, LLC. (Doc. 56, ¶ 1).

For the reasons stated on the record at the hearing on September 4, 2018, as well as the additional information that Mr. Palmer's widow now has been located and consents to the release, Ms. Malverty's Unopposed Motion for an Order Authorizing the Confidential Production of Documents of Third Party James L. Palmer (Doc. 57) is GRANTED. As stated in the court's previous order, this third-party information is subject to the highest level of confidentiality available under the parties' confidentiality agreement. In producing this information, Experian shall redact all but the last four digits of the account numbers. If the documents are to be filed in this litigation, the confidentiality of the documents are subject to the Locals Rules for the Middle District of Florida and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
