

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
OCALA DIVISION

KERENNA ROBBINS,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No: 5:20-cv-299-Oc-18PRL

COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY,

Defendant.

ORDER

This case is before the Court on the Commissioner's third motion to stay the case for ninety days, or until the Social Security Agency ("SSA") regains the capacity to produce the certified transcript of the record necessary for this case. (Doc. 17). Previously, the Court granted in part the motions to stay and the Commissioner has had a total of ninety days to file an answer and the transcript for the record in this case. (Docs. 13, 16).

Due to public health concerns, the SSA has transitioned to a maximum telework environment which prevented it from adhering to its business process for preparing the transcript of the record in many cases. Additionally, the complaints filed in SSA cases have increased, which has resulted in a backlog of work, making it difficult for the agency to process the transcripts in a timely manner.

Plaintiff has filed a response to the motion setting forth objections including that the Commissioner has failed to provide the specific status of preparing Plaintiff's transcript and has been asking for stays in cases for over eight months now. (Doc. 18). Plaintiff's points are well taken. Given the unique challenges caused by the pandemic, the court is inclined to afford additional time to the Commissioner in order to obtain the transcript of the record in this case. Indeed, the need for an extension must be balanced with Plaintiff's right to have her case decided.

Accordingly, the Commissioner's opposed motion to stay (Doc. 17) is GRANTED in part. The Commissioner shall file an answer and the transcript of the record for this case within 60 days. If additional time is needed the Commissioner should file a declaration specific to this case and explain why the transcript of the record has not yet been prepared. No further extension will be granted absent extraordinary cause as to this case.
