

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
ORLANDO DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

v.

Case No. 6:24-cr-53-RBD-RMN

SHAWN MICHAEL SIMMERER.

ORDER

Before the Court is the issue of Defendant's mental competency. Defendant moved for a psychiatric evaluation in October 2024. (Doc. 70.) Around the same time, Defendant's attorney, Charles Greene, moved to withdraw (Docs. 69, 93), and Defendant improperly filed a pro se motion seeking a new attorney, or if none could be appointed, self-representation (Doc. 76). On referral, U.S. Magistrate Judge Robert M. Norway granted Defendant's motion for a psychiatric evaluation and appointed an expert who conducted the evaluation. (Docs. 82, 85, 90.) The Court took Defendant's pro se motion under advisement pending the outcome of the competency proceedings. (Doc. 79.)

Judge Norway then held a Competency Hearing on December 12, 2024, and entered a Report and Recommendation stating that the Court should find Defendant competent to proceed. (Doc. 105 ("R&R").) During that hearing, Judge Norway granted Attorney Greene's motion to withdraw, appointed new counsel, and denied Defendant's pro se motion as moot. (Docs. 101, 103, 104.) As to the R&R, the parties did not object and the time has passed, so the Court examines the R&R for clear error only. See Macort v. Prem, Inc., 208 F. App'x 781, 784 (11th Cir. 2006).

Finding none, the R&R is due to be adopted.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED:

1. The R&R (Doc. 105) is ADOPTED AND CONFIRMED and made a part of this Order in its entirety.
2. The Defendant is FOUND COMPETENT TO PROCEED.
3. Now that the competency issue has been resolved, the Court DENIES AS MOOT Defendant's pro se motion (Doc. 76) in light of the appointment of Attorney Andrew C. Searle.¹

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers in Orlando, Florida, on January 6, 2025.

ROY B. DALTON, JR.
United States District Judge

¹ To the extent Defendant still wishes to raise the issue of self-representation, Defendant may raise it in a new filing through his new attorney.
